In the 1st round of the 1999 world championships Dominic Dale was drawn to play Nigel Bond.

During the course of this best of 19 frame match which was won 10 frames to 6 by Nigel, Dominic Dale set the world record for the highest total for one frame in a world ranking event when he finished one of the frames with a total of 167.

This was made up of a break of 122, one red and 11 fouls and misses worth 44 penalty points.

Dominic Dale

Nigel Bond